The hotel

WELCOME TO THE MEGARO An independent, spirited hotel, rebelling against the 'norm' here in Kings Cross. Housed within our iconic, multi-coloured bowels is the world's largest mini-bar, our Italian eatery, and our gritty piano bar. For people who love London, British pop culture and the occasional jam session. With oversized rooms for London, The Megaro is a place with personality, perfect for business travel as well as leisure. You just need to choose your room category, we will take care of the rest.
